

QVC Lounge Cookie Policy

What are cookies?

They're tiny text files stored on your computer when you visit certain web pages, and they're standard practice for most sites. When you use the QVC Lounge, Cookies are transferred to and stored on your computers hard drive.

Most browsers allow you to accept or reject cookies when you first visit the site. Please refer to your internet browser for more information on browser settings.

What are they used for?

When cookies are stored on to your computer this allows us to recognise you when you return to the QVC Lounge and enhance your experience by allowing you to make full use of personalised features.

How do I disable cookies?

If you want to disable cookies you need to change your website browser settings to reject cookies. How to do this will depend on the browser you use.

What happens if I disable cookies?

This depends on which cookies you disable, but in general the QVC Lounge may not operate properly if cookies are switched off.

What about cookies on other devices like my phone?

Your computer, tablet or mobile phone will need to accept cookies, as you won't be able to visit our website without them.

Cookies set by third party websites

We might embed photos or video content from websites such as YouTube onto pages on the QVC Lounge. As a result, when you visit a page with this embedded content, you may be presented with cookies from these websites. QVC does not control these cookies and you should check the relevant third party website for more information about them.

The cookies used on this site are:

The categories of cookies used on this site include: Strictly Necessary Cookies (i.e. essential to enable you to move around the QVC Lounge and use its functions), Usage and Performance Cookies (i.e. to collect information of which pages you visit on the QVC Lounge), and Functionality Cookies (i.e. to remember certain choices you make, such as your log-in details)."
